Labyrinth Workshop
'…a kind of homecoming'

Friday 1st April 2011, 9.30am-3.30pm, Scargill House, North Yorkshire

The workshop '…a kind of homecoming' is an exploration of the labyrinth as a place for deepening our awareness of our self and the other.

Through contemplative stillness and movement there will be chance to experience what the labyrinth offers us as 'spiritual beings on a human journey'. There will be time for walking the labyrinth, for personal reflection and for sharing within small groups and the larger gathering.

The Workshop will begin at 9.30am with registration and coffee and finish at 3.30pm.

The day is organised by Veriditas, a non-profit organization in the USA specialising in this field and led by the Rev. Di Williams who is their UK Master Teacher.

Registration Fee

The registration fee is $120.00 (£75.00)
($100.00 (£65) if booked before 31st January 2011).
This includes lunch and refreshments during the workshop.
Payment for this event is only available by credit/debit card via the Veriditas website. www.veriditas.org

NB: Applicants for the day Workshop must receive confirmation of their acceptance by Veriditas before contacting Scargill House at admin@scargillmovement.org to book their accommodation, breakfast and evening meals. (Lunches and mid morning and afternoon refreshments are included in the price of the workshop).

The workshop is open to all, but particularly serves as the pre-qualifying workshop for the labyrinth facilitator training weekend immediately following the end of the day workshop. It will be limited to 20 people.

Rev. Di Williams is an Anglican priest, adult educator, professional massage practitioner, spiritual accompanier and writer. She leads retreats, workshops, labyrinth facilitator training and is a consultant to emerging labyrinth projects in the UK. In 2008 she was awarded the MBE for services to Higher Education, including her multi-faith and labyrinth work.
She is the author of 'Labyrinth – landscape of the soul' (for more information or to purchase visit www.diwilliams.com)
